I. Name and Membership

- A. There shall be an organization known as Graduate Students' Engineering Government (GSEG).
- B. All students enrolled in a graduate program at the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences (SEAS), University of Pennsylvania, are members of the organization during the term of their program. This includes:
 - (i) Students enrolled in Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) programs in Bioengineering, Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering, Computer and Information Science, Electrical and Systems Engineering, Materials Science and Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering.
 - (ii) Students enrolled in Master's programs in Bioengineering, Biotechnology, Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering, Computer Graphics and Game Technology, Computer and Information Science, Computer and Information Technology, Data Science, Electrical Engineering, Integrated Product Design, Materials Science and Engineering, Mechanical Engineering and Applied Mechanics, Nanotechnology, Robotics, Scientific Computing, and Systems Engineering.
 - (iii) Students enrolled in Accelerated Master's Programs in Engineering, upon completion of their undergraduate degrees, during the course of their single degree graduate program.

II. Purpose

- A. GSEG shall be the student government charged with representing all of its Members.
- B. GSEG shall serve as a liaison among the departmental associations listed in Article III.
- C. GSEG shall elect representatives to the Graduate and Professional Student Assembly (GAPSA) as described in Article IV.
- D. GSEG shall nominate representatives to organizations at the University of Pennsylvania as described in Article VII.
- E. GSEG shall strive to remove barriers that impede the ability of its members to make the best of their experience at the University. For this purpose, GSEG shall foster dialogue among its members to identify relevant issues of advocacy, and advocate for the said issues at platforms including but not limited to GAPSA, the School, and the University.
- F. GSEG shall manage and audit the finances for the departmental associations listed in Article III.
- G. GSEG shall sponsor academic, cultural, and social events of interest to its members and organize programs to enhance the quality of their lives.
